HUNGARIAN VIRTUOSI ORCHESTRA - STRINGS

Direct from Budapest, the orchestra is making its North American debut tour. These 23 outstanding string players are under the direction of Miklos (accent) Szenthelyi who was awarded the coveted Liszt Prize in 1986. The group is highly polished and has a warm, thrilling orchestral sound.

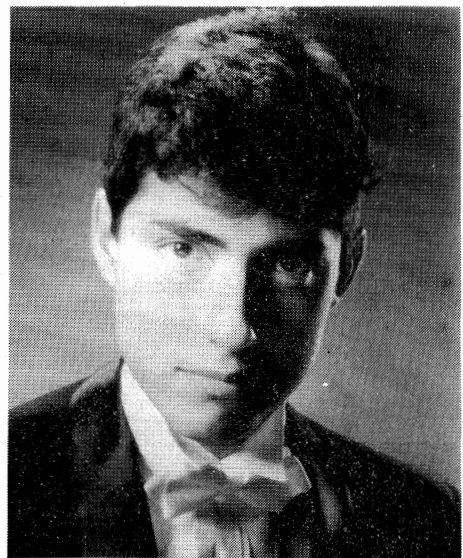

RUSSIAN STATE CHORUS

For more than 50 years the chorus has been recognized as one of the world's leading ensembles. The 44-person chorus is under the leadership of Yevgeny Tytianko, on this North American debut tour. It is best known for its performances of the Russian Classical repertoire, but their discography includes recordings of works of Rachmaninoff, Mozart and Verdi.

ROBERT BONFIGLIO - HARMONICA

This harmonica virtuoso's mastery of his instrument crosses all musical boundaries, with a repertoire that ranges from Bach to the blues. His poetic expressiveness has gained him performances at Carnegie Hall, the New York Pops and the Hollywood Bowl.

JOSEF TAPIA - PIANIST

This American pianist is known for his clean, rhythmic, deft and spirited performances as a guest with many symphony orchestras. He received a Master of Music degree from the Manhattan School of Music and has performed in Europe, and Central America, and at the Kennedy Center.
