Harlem Spiritual Ensemble
January 9, 1996 (Tuesday)

From the Trinity Lutheran Church in New York City, this group is devoted to the preservation of the American Negro Spiritual. Faithful to the original interpretations of the spiritual, the Ensemble brings to life the vital spirit expressed in these songs.

Aspen Wind Quintet
February 12, 1996 (Monday)

This award-winning wind quintet has elevated the performance of wind chamber music to a level on a par with the finest string quartets. Critics have unanimously praised their sophisticated and sensitive interpretations. A charm and irrepressible love of music bloom through their virtuosity.

Gather 'round the hearth as Carl takes us across the seas on a musical tour of the misty highlands and mysterious islands of his native Scotland. Carl's slight Scottish brogue and authentic Scottish attire add a tangy "breath of heather" to his program.

Carl Peterson - Scottish Singer
March 14, 1996 (Thursday)

Khenany, Music of Latin America
April 13, 1996 (Saturday)

This seven-piece band from Mexico plans music from all of Latin America, especially the songs from the Andes Mountains. A variety of authentic folk instruments will be used, including maracas, wooden claves, the rain stick and the tresillo (a Cuban guitar). Their colorful costumes, movements and vocalist add to the variety and charm of this exceptional band of musicians.
